I needed a change during the pandemic, so purple hair seemed to be a good idea.

As tough as this time is, it is an opportunity to think about trying new things. What could you do to shake things up? Maybe the real question is, should we all go purple?

Some of you know I just had arthroscopic surgery on my knee last Friday. My meniscus needed to be removed as I tore it last March. So, I'm sitting for a week, then gradually will get up and around. I'm not a good sitter, very cranky! Cheese with my whine, please!

Now back to the studio....

Online Live Classes!!!!

I'm happy to mail supply kits!

A class is a great birthday/holiday gift for your crafty friends and family!

October choices

Call your girlfriends, pour a glass of wine and join us for a virtual Ladies' Night Out!

Your kit will include all supplies needed (base is 2"x1") to make one (blue or gold) pendant.

You can use my examples as a guide, or play with the materials and make your own design. If you have your own supplies you can use those too. Either way, you will learn to use the putty, the options are endless.

If you would like to join us, on my website registration page, you will be asked:

- supply kit picked-up/mailed (address)
- blue or gold option

You will receive the kit, I'll send you the link prior to class, and you will be all set!

mosaic artist from Virginia. She created clay "pinch pals" with the goal of having them represent kindness, empathy, sharing and more. Just what our world needs now! Our goal was to use them in a mosaic, a really fun challenge!

I need to think of a name for this piece, any ideas?

Pamela made this amazing lazy susan for her home, the colors are spectacular!

Rachel loves cardinals, she did such a great job on this piece!

If you haven't seen the many mosaic San Francisco steps, click here and see more!

Mardi did a great job playing with color when creating this table, so fun and happy (this picture was taken in her home so no mask)!

I miss all of you so much, stay safe!
